L. L. McArthur, the editor of the Umatilla Advertiser, has commenced the publication of a Democratic campaign paper at Umatilla called the Index. The Index is ferninst the "Radicals, Jacobins and Oligarchists," goes in for "the sovereignty and independence of the States against Federalism," is opposed to all amendments to the Constitution, opposed to Congress, and affects to believe a Democrat better than a nigger. It says it will "forever oppose the Abolition party." It is decidedly in favor of a split between the President and Congress, and recklessly don't care a cent how soon rebels and Democrats get into office.

Messrs. Thomas & Co., we learn, are making preparations to start a new line of stages from Umatilla to Boise City.

An article in the U. S. Economist of February, mentions the sale of 1,500 lbs. of Oregon wool at 42 cents per pound. As compared with this, California wool sold at 35@42½c. All other Pacific coast wools sold under those figures.

Among the arrivals at the Lincoln House last evening, were Capt. Keeler, of Salem, and his brother, G. N. Keeler. The latter came out last July to see the country, and has started home, now, overland by way of Montana, intending to take the steamers at the head of navigation on the Missouri river.

A man named Robert Gill, left the employment of J. L. Parrish, near Salem, last week, under circumstances which lead to apprehensions for his fate. He had exhibited palpable insanity for several days. He is an Irishman of about twenty-eight years of age, five feet seven inches in hight and of sandy complexion.

The Band of the 14th Infantry are to give a concert in this city to-night, and to-morrow they go to Salem for the purpose of concerting there.

The Good Templars of Oregon City gave a second entertainment at their Hall, Tuesday evening, to a crowded house. The reception of their first entertainment was so cordial as to induce a repetition, with some additions and improvements in their programme. The Templars of Oregon City have done and are continuing to do, a good work, and their efforts are appreciated by the most respectable and worthy people of the city. The receipts on Tuesday evening were large and will be used, as on the former occasion, in fitting up the Hall attractively.

A new lodge of Odd Fellows, called "Covenant Lodge," was instituted at Harrisburg on the 19th ult. The officers installed were, Manly Danforth, N. G.; William Vaughn, V. G.; J. Q. Vaughn, Secretary, and Benjamin Holt, Treasurer.

Mr. Joseph Watt, cabinet-maker at Sal[illegible], left here by the Montana for a trip back to his old home in Indiana. The Statesman says Mr. Wiley Kenyon, of Sa[illegible], will soon return with his family to the States, with the intention of remaining there permanently.

A "SIMON PURE" DEMOCRAT.—The State Journal relates the following incident which illustrates how Democrats estimate the proof of "Simon pure" Democracy [illegible]

A delegate to the Democratic State Convention at Portland, hailing from [illegible] Oregon, while on his way to the Convention fell in company with a [illegible] to the Union State [illegible] brother [illegible] ahead. He [illegible] freely on the relative merits and [illegible] of the various copperhead aspirants, Fay, Chadwick, etc., and [illegible] up with [illegible] for [illegible] based on the [illegible] that he had "lain out in the [illegible] for the party; had fought and [illegible] for the [illegible] party, and been in the rebel army at the battle of Pea Ridge," and [illegible] any of them [illegible] record than that." He [illegible] Simon-pure copperhead in Oregon would vote for him, [illegible] such are the [illegible]

Fay has not, of late years at all events, "lain out in the swamps" for Democracy, but every man who ever did "bushwhack for the party" or who ever fought against the Union, will vote for him: he has seen Jarse and that is a voucher of his Democracy sufficient to secure the vote of every bloody-handed guerrilla who "fought and bled for the party" and then saved his neck by fleeing from Sec[illegible]'s border to become a high-toned Democrat in Oregon.

THEY HAVE DONE IT.—If the Democracy had the most remote hope before the convention of electing their State ticket, they have rashly and foolishly destroyed it. That hope lay in their putting up men who had never strongly committed themselves as being in sympathy with the defunct slaveholders' rebellion; but true to their instincts, they have nominated a ticket on which there is but one man who has not rendered himself obnoxious to all good men by his treasonable efforts to paralyze the strength of our people, in order that secession might succeed. Their antecedents damn them, and the people will ratify that much of their antecedents in June.—Mountaineer.

The exception mentioned by the Mountaineer, is in favor of making the Government pay for all the negroes made free by the constitutional amendment, and opposed to paying the interest on the national debt, unless United States bonds are taxed. If that is not a spirit that would throttle the Government, what is it? Kelly is a good enough "Jones" to suit the Jones family of Copperheads. We are just as much in favor of ratifying his damnation as of the rest of the treasonable crowd.

"TREASON ODIOUS."—President Johnson deserves letters patent for his plan of making treason odious. A day or two since A. H. Stephens, the rebel Vice-President appeared at Washington, and on his arrival was immediately closeted with "Moses" Johnson, and made the special guest of the White House and the confidential adviser of Johnson. It is supposed that loyal men are now almost without exception denied the high privilege of conferring with his Excellency, and that men of the Stephens stamp are alone consulted by him about matters of state. Treason is made odious by honoring traitors and neglecting the counsels of loyal men.

GROWING COURAGEOUS.—During the session of the Democratic State Convention in this city, their hall was decorated with flags. Now that the country is out of danger, Democrats can afford to display the bunting. But we all remember that five years ago, when Union men wanted to raise the old flag, they came near having to fight the Democrats in nearly every neighborhood in the State. The gentlemen who now so proudly display flags didn't want to see "the ensign of the Republic" floating then. Patriotic souls! they desired to keep down "political excitement." The danger's over, and they're more courageous now.

One of the latest Copperhead schemes at Washington city, as revealed by a correspondent of the New York Mercury, is to make two States of New York, the new State to be composed of Staten, Long and Manhattan Islands, Westchester and a few of the adjoining counties. The Woods, the Mercury and the Day-Book would be rejoiced beyond measure at the success of this scheme, as it would add a few Congressmen and two Senators to the strength of the Democratic-rebel-conservative-Union-hating-radical-traitor party in Congress.

The New Ticket Scheme.

A few days since we had a telegram from Salem, stating that conservative men of both parties were talking of getting up a new ticket—a conservative-Democratic-Union affair to support Johnson and to be in harmony with the new National party of the eastern States. There may be dissatisfaction with the tickets now in the field—if there were not, it would be the first instance on record of entire unanimity of opinion But what is the true and only sane course for Union men to pursue? Our ticket is in the field, and by the delegated authority of the Union party of the State Do Union men desire to see it or any part of it defeated, because, in one or more instances they did not succeed in procuring the nomination of their favorites? If so, they thereby confess to putting personal considerations above patriotism and the best interests of the Union, so far as our State may affect national affairs. The Union professions of such men can go but a very little way with an intelligent and patriotic people. Every true-blue Union man will infinitely prefer the success of the whole ticket, with one or two personally objectionable men, than to see the Copperhead ticket elected with men, all of whom are objectionable on grounds of vital policy. There is no man on the Union ticket who has not been a consistent and steadfast friend of the Union and who has not always rejoiced at the ill-success of all schemes to disrupt and destroy it. On the other hand, the Copperhead ticket is composed of men, every one of whom, has lent himself to the aid of the rebellion in all the ways possible by a stay-at-home. They have voted, written, spoken, laughed and sneered against the Union cause; and had the war extended to this coast, would have borne arms against the Union, unless, indeed, their sentiments and sympathies have been falsely expressed. They are as bitterly rebel in sympathy now as when they all joined in chorus, declaring the war a "wicked crusade," an "unholy war," and a "fanatical, fratricidal war upon the rights of the South." Does any Union man wish to see such men elected to office in Oregon? Are there any willing to see such men elected when their votes would prevent it? If so, we cannot see wherein they differ essentially and in practice from the copperheads who stood still and scoffed while an infernal rebellion roared and surged around the National Capital. No Union man can either thus stand back on the plea of "disgust" or go into an arrangement by which votes will be kept from the Union ticket, without being justly held to account by public sentiment. It will not do to say that copperhead votes will also be secured against the Portland candidates. Copperheads and rebel sympathizers who have with resolute hate, for five years, plotted against the Government, are not going to be seduced now into anything which is not the strongest and bitterest expression of that hate, within their power. They will all vote for the nominees of the Portland convention. No copperhead vote will be thrown away on a conservative nomination. If their ticket were a thousand times more bitterly rebel, they would all of them vote for it.

A new ticket would catch none but Union votes. Every Union vote cast for a new, or simply withheld from the Union ticket, is half a vote for the copperheads. This is the logic of numbers and no sophistry can avoid it. It would be a sorry sight to see the men who have stood boldly and firmly by the right through years of tempest, surrender now their manhood to venal copperheads, for no better reason than that their favorites did not procure nominations. Union men, everywhere, vote your own tickets. Do your duty now, as in the past, by sustaining only Union men. Do your duty heartily and wholly, by polling EVERY UNION VOTE FOR THE UNION TICKET.

Will they Repudiate?

> Resolved, That the assumption of the opposition that the Democratic party is in favor of repudiating the public debt is slanderous and false.—Democratic State Platform

> I have taken my stand on this question and I here declare that unless United States bonds are held liable to tax, I will never by my voice or my vote aid in paying a single dollar of the interest on the public debt, by G—d!—Kelly's Oregon City Speech

Here the Copperhead platform is spit upon by the Copperhead nominee for Governor. The platform was constructed to catch votes, but Kelly's words show the real spirit of their author and of the party. The party IS IN FAVOR OF REPUDIATION, and its nominee for Governor, WITH A TERRIBLE OATH, SAYS SO.

DEMAGOGUERY WON'T WIN.—In his veto of the civil rights bill, Johnson seized the opportunity to perpetrate a little piece of low demagoguism, by appealing to the prejudices of the ignorant and vulgar through insinuations that the bill which he declined to sign meddled with the question of suffrage in the States. Now the last section of the bill in express terms recognizes the right of the States to regulate suffrage, and denies that the bill is to be construed as in any way interfering with the elective franchise. Why, then, did Johnson introduce that question at all? It was simply an appeal to the baser sort of people, and was intended to array them in solid opposition against Congress and the Union party. Demagoguism of this kind has run its race among the American people, and may as well be abandoned It won't win.

"WHEN SHALL WE THREE MEET AGAIN?"—The Smiths—Jo. S. and John Henry—are to address the "Joneses" at Lafayette, on Saturday. Whether John Henry's Confederate friend from San Francisco—'Dr Brown'—will be present, we are not informed. We hope he will be, for then Smith, Jones and Brown will have the pleasure of a meeting—a pleasure not experienced since John Henry's bootless expedition to San Francisco in behalf of the Confederate Government.

The Democratic platform condemns a protective tariff, but applauds President Johnson for trying to defeat a measure which gives all men the right to protect their property and their lives Like Hudibras, the Democracy are evidently endeavoring to

"Compound with sins they are inclined to
By damning those they have no mind to."

"Out of the fullness of the heart, the mouth speaketh." One of the candidates for Representative on the Copperhead ticket in Polk county, has laid out a town in that county and named it DIXIE

IS KELLY A "SIMON PURE?"—Mosher a son in law of Jo Lane writes to 'Dear Mac' at Portland that little 'Chad' though not one of our kind' was thought to be tool enough to answer the purposes of the still plotting traitors of Oregon but that the candidate for Governor must be a 'Simon Pure'—must have "seen Jones Has Kelly seen Jones? He has and is an accepted member of the Jones family Those who heard his speech to the rebel convention at Oregon City, had no difficulty in detecting him as a "Simon Pure" Jones His profane oath that he would never consent to pay the interest on the National debt till U S bonds should be taxed shows that he is under a fearful pledge in favor of national REPUDIATION—one of the cardinal principles of that traitorous secret order into which Democrats go to "see Jones" His argument in favor of making the Government pay the traitors of the South for plunging into rebellion and losing their negroes, was another Jones ear mark The convention which nominated him, was composed of a large majority of regularly sworn Joneses who dared not nominate a man who had not 'seen Jones' and who therefore was not a "Simon Pure" Chadwick and Smith had not seen Jones and the delegates did not dare to nominate either of them while hundreds of sworn Joneses stood looking on. Gates and Bonham may or may not have seen Jones, but that doubt, if any exist, was not what defeated them—they had not seen Jones as much, and were not so unreservedly sworn to stand up for Jones as were the men who secured the nominations Does any one doubt that Fay, Lane Bell and O'Meara had "seen Jones?"—every one of these men who have spouted treason, hate and foul calumny against the Government ever since the rebellion began. In the light of Kelly's Oregon City speech and the crowd of K G. Cs. (Joneses,) among which he is found, can any body question that he is a "Simon Pure?" Remember, that in a convention of Joneses, he was the only man nominated by acclamation.

THE O'FAY PEDIGREE—NESMITH'S OPINION THEREON.—We believe O'Fay, when lingering over his cups, affects to have blue blood in his veins—in other words, to come of uncommon fine stock. We don't attach much importance to this matter, but for the benefit of his Johnson friends we take the liberty of publishing the opinion of Nesmith (a Johnson man) upon the O'Fay pedigree.

In 1858 O'Fay was trying his hand at speaking in Polk county for the benefit of the "Nationals"—Kelly and O'Mara. Nesmith then lived in Polk, and he being in favor of the "Regulars"—Bush & Co.—O'Fay was snapping at his heels whenever he got a chance. One day Nes. took an opportunity to retort upon the fierce little latrator. He began by saying that he didn't know O'Fay, but he had observed the animal, and from his knowledge of natural history and his experience in stock raising he believed O'Fay "to be a bad cross between a rat-terrier and a ringtailed monkey."

As this is merely the opinion of one Democrat about another, there needs no apology for giving it publicity. We do not warrant Nesmith's opinion to be correct in this matter, but Democrats cannot deny that he is the best ascertainable authority in cases wherein the reputation and standing of his party brethren are concerned. If the account should prove incorrect in any particular, we'll cheerfully make the correction. We would not refuse to rectify an error even in so little a matter as the O'Fay pedigree.

Plutarch begins his "Life of Pericles" with the remark, that "When Cæsar happened to see some strangers at Rome carrying young dogs and monkeys in their arms, and fondly caressing them, he asked whether women in their country never bore any children." Taking into consideration the stuff that composes the Democratic ticket of this State, with Nesmith's remark on the pedigree of the individual who heads it, we may ask whether the Democratic party of Oregon has now no men in it.

A FAIR WARNING.—The Democracy of Grant county held their county convention on the 22d ult., and among other things resolved—

> That we are opposed to the Registry law recommended by Governor Gibbs, as destructive of the rights of freemen, and an instrument for the use of tyrants only

In what manner, "destructive of the rights of freemen?" Democrats could be registered under such a law as readily as Union men—registry is an act depending only on the voluntary will of the voter himself. The resolution above, simply means that a registry law would destroy the power of Democrats to import into Grant county, road-agents, guerrillas from Price's army and other Democrats enough to carry the rebel ticket for the Legislature. That is the only "right" of free booters which a registry law could limit. Of the resident and qualified voters not one would or could be deprived by it, of the free exercise of suffrage

How "an instrument for the use of tyrants?" Democrats thought it tyrannical in the Government to put down murderous guerrillas in Missouri. Since those guerrillas "left their country for their country's good," and emigrated to Idaho, it would be tyrannical in the State of Oregon to prevent them, by law, from coming in hordes over into Grant and other border counties to deposit fraudulent votes for their admirers and friends! That is what the resolution means.

We say to our Union friends of Eastern Oregon that the Democracy of Grant have given them fair warning in that resolution of their intention to import into all the border counties, the refugees from defrauded justice, to vote their ticket They are opposed to a registry law only that they may be unrestrained in that sort of villainy. Look out for guerrillas and road agents from Idaho on election day!

ANOTHER JOHNSON RECRUIT—That national and truly Democratic patriot, John C. Breckinridge, comes out in favor of Johnson's "reconstruction policy." We have not learned whether the President has sent for him to come to Washington as a confidential adviser, as he did for that equal rebel, A H Stephens

The Courier man exclaims

> Oh! for a whip in every honest man's hand to whale the knaves and idiots naked through the land

Punishment will come upon you soon enough, O, weetless wight of the Courier, without your invoking a visitation from Nemesis before your appointed time.

Four out of the five Democratic candidates on the State ticket begin their names with J They might, either of them, very appropriately write their names JUDAS, and their political career for the last five years would stamp the name as fitly written.

A STRAW.—The Statesman shows how the secesh ticket was received at Salem:

> Hosts of Democrats have been heard to declare that they will not go Fay and O'Meara. A feeling of most bitter indignation is manifested by the respectable members of that party, and justly so Just think of setting little secesh Jim Fay up over such men as Smith, Strong, Grover, Kelley, Gates, Thayer, Burnett Chadwick Grover Hayden, Larrabee, and scores of others—men of standing good repute and ability But what is the "straw"? A Democrat in this city, and one of the most popular men in town, had been proposed for State Treasurer, and had consented to be a candidate, but on learning by telegraph that Fay was nominated for Congress, declared that that let him out, and immediately telegraphed to a friend to withdraw his name from such a concern; which being done to his everlasting credit his name does not appear on the records of a Convention which has nominated avowed traitors and secessionists

"BOOMING"—The Walla Walla river and the various other streams that drain our valley have been "booming" for several days back, and so high has been the water that many places in the lower part of the valley have been submerged The stages in making the trip to Wallula have been compelled to keep on high ground, thus materially lengthening the trip. The water in the streams, at this writing, is receding, and in a day or two it is expected the stages will be able to resume the usual route.—Walla Walla Statesman

FROM THE NORTH.

Big Bend Mining News.

NEW WESTMINSTER, April 9th.—From a reliable miner who arrived at Yale last night from Lytton, we learn that rich bank diggings have been struck on Carns' creek, Big Bend The prospects obtained were so rich as to create excitement The discoverer of the diggings immediately proceeded to Lytton City, where he recorded 18 claims, and he sold 15 ounces of coarse gold which he had taken out, to Messrs Brule Bros, merchants Some prospecting was done in the vicinity of Carns' creek last fall by a company of old Cariboodites, of which Bob Nobles was a member. They found the diggings were deep, and that they could not get down to bed rock before the winter set in, and being short of provisions they were obliged to leave until spring The bank diggings were not known last fall, and their discovery cannot fail to be a valuable addition to the previous discoveries made in the Big Bend country.

Lakes Kamloops and Suswap were not open one week since, but it is the opinion of those who have returned from Savannah Ferry, that they will be navigable by this time. A great number of men have already proceeded to the mines from all quarters, and there is but one opinion regarding their richness and extent. During the present week six pack trains with goods, have left Yale for the new mines Stages are running three times a week with passengers Great progress has been made in building the Hudson Bay Company's steamer The machinery will leave Yale to-day It is anticipated, that about the first day of May the Marten will be in running order.

We learn from the resident magistrate of Yale, that he has received a letter from the recording officer at Lytton City, confirming the news of a miner having come there to record eighteen bank claims on Carn's Creek, Big Bend, and also that he has a considerable quantity of gold dust in his possession

THE TEETH! THE TEETH!

DR. J. R. CARDWELL,

Having lately returned from San Francisco, would inform his friends and the public generally that he is now prepared to meet the demands for DENTAL WORK. All the Latest Improvements and Inventions in Dentistry will be found in his office, and all operations in the Dental Art will be personally attended by Dr C. As to his previous efforts he would respectfully refer to those cases that have already come under his management. ap11dtf

The Wife Beater.—George Robinson was fined $... and costs, on conviction before Justice Hoffman yesterday for beating and kicking his wife. The case was one of pity for the little girl—the child of these unhappy parents. [illegible] of the parties themselves there are conflicting stories, and if the whole truth was known, possibly the one or the other would have little foundation upon which the public could base sympathy for them. The wife is a very intelligent appearing woman, and it may be has been driven to a wrong course of life by the beastly conduct of her husband, but to prevent the child from a wretched destiny, she should be properly cared for by some one. It was proven that the couple had been married seven years. The child, which is truly a very pretty little girl—is five years of age. They have resided in Portland about nine months, two thirds of which time the mother has been obliged to work in saloons—in the capacity of waiter girl—giving her wages, thus received to Robinson, who, by dissoluteness has managed to squander it. The woman was shown to be the sole supporter of the family. On reaching home late at nights, the husband has several times beaten her severely. On last Sunday morning she was treated to her customary flogging, and her blackened eyes and bruised face showed to what extent the injuries had been inflicted. His cruelty towards her was the cause of her leaving him on one occasion, but she again resumed her station in the family, and bore the shameful bruises uncomplainingly as long as she could. The police have been aware of the cruel course pursued toward her for some time, but upon her own entreaties, have desisted from making an arrest of the man. Her intelligence would imply that she has seen better days. At the conclusion of the examination, the Court regretted that the law limited the punishment in such an aggravated case, but the defendant received the full benefit of the existing statute, which was a fine of $50 and costs, in default of which he was committed to the county jail.

Want of Articles for Export.—The barkentine W. B. Scott—will receive cargo at Oak Point for San Francisco, clearing from this port on Friday Morning. We are pleased to know that the vessels coming to our wharves at the present time, can find cargoes for the return trip along the rivers, at the mills of our enterprising lumber dealers. Puget Sound supports a much larger shipping than all that of Oregon placed together, and many of the vessels go there in ballast. We should suppose, under such circumstances that it would be a paying investment for some of our capitalists to engage in this branch of business. We have not an adequate support for a large fleet. The vessels now employed in this trade will soon be unable to obtain full outward cargoes, and they cannot be expected to come here long without at least [illegible] paying expenses on the return voyages. When [illegible], towage, and all such incidentals are considered, it must be apparent to every person that we need more of the articles we produce for export. The supply of lumber falls so far below the demand that prices in some waste rule high, and we are informed by builders and contractors that they find great difficulty in figuring on contracts for the present season, in consequence of the growing scarcity of materials.

Sit Him Again.—The Red Bluff Independent shows up some of the boasted "intelligence" of Californians, in the following paragraph:

"Late dispatches from Washington inform us that another [illegible] has entered into competition for the Oregon mail and has been successful. To give an idea of the mail matter at this season we will instance one little town, [illegible], at the mouth of the Columbia river, which has about one [illegible] and fifty inhabitants, and to which there has been sent during the past week fourteen sacks of public documents, each weighing about one hundred and [illegible]. The new contractor will find out [illegible] when he comes to inquire into it."

The Jacksonville Sentinel replied by saying: "You [illegible] is not Rosaite, but H. W. Corbett, of Portland, Oregon. He has been there for twelve or fifteen years [illegible] the country, climate, and amount of mail matter, and counts his dollars by thousands. We claim to possess a little capital and enterprise in this State. Again, you fellows had better study geography a little; you will find that Olympia is not within a hundred miles of the mouth of the Columbia river, but is the Capital of Washington Territory."

Harness and Saddlery.—The firm of S. Sherlock & Co. are now prepared to furnish harness, saddles, etc., in their line, as will be seen by notice elsewhere in this paper, on favorable terms to purchasers. In looking over their stock we were convinced that the inducements for [illegible] in this market are really greater than people imagine. The "Hill's Concord Stage Harness" furnished by [illegible] & Co. is certainly equal to the best article sold in the East, and is sold at $10 less per set. Mr. S. assures us that all who have used the home made harness, and given it a fair test, would willingly recommend it to their best friends. There is considerable money invested in this city in the harness and saddle business, and probably no better workmen can be found in any State of the Union than we can produce here, engaged in the trade, while the leather used is unexceptionable, and yet the business seems to languish for want of proper encouragement. We trust the time will speedily come when our home [illegible] shall receive their proportion of merit by liberal and well [illegible] support to the prejudice of Eastern [illegible].

Music, Pianos, Etc.—Messrs. Shanahan & Dufrene, finding that their place of business on Morrison street was too small to accommodate their increasing trade, have leased the two story frame building, corner of Morrison and First streets, lately occupied by Campbell & Co., where they have opened a stock of musical instruments, sheet music, and a very full assortment of pianos, molding for frames, etc., making quite an attractive store. As soon as [illegible] street is improved as proposed, and the Nicolson pavement is laid on First street, their new place of business will be a [illegible] feature of that portion of the city. Mr. Shanahan is late of San Francisco, where he was for a number of years engaged at Kohler's Musical [illegible], and he thoroughly understands the principles of any kind of instrument, and is well informed regarding the tuning of pianos, which is a specialty with him in that [illegible] of the firm. Mr. Dufrene, as a mechanic, has long been favorably known in our city, and will give close attention to the framing department. See [illegible]

[illegible] and Victoria Trade.—We see by the published [illegible] of the port of Victoria, that last month the [illegible] merchandise, etc., from Astoria, [illegible] amounted to $3,231—that from Puget Sound is given at $12,[illegible]—fully one-half of which, ($6,613) may be [illegible] to Oregon, making our exports for the month, $12,144. The imports of English goods at this city, for the same period, amounted to $3,122 99, leaving a balance of $7,022 99 to be met by our Vancouver Island [illegible] here. The trade between these points should be largely [illegible], and it would be, most certainly, in case we were allowed a bonded warehouse "at Portland," which [illegible] justice was done us by Congress, making this a port of entry. We have repeatedly inquired, what has [illegible] of the petitions and memorials on this subject? Can anybody enlighten us?

Sent Down.—J. J. Randall, who was found guilty [illegible] burglar when he appropriated cigars, tobacco and a pipe belonging to Mayer Hee, was yesterday sentenced to sixty days imprisonment from the Recorder's Court. His accomplice in the transaction, John Kirk, pleaded not guilty, and asked to make a statement, which failed, however, to save him, and both were committed for sixty days each.

Fast Express Line.—The Umatilla paper states that Tracy & Co.'s Express and Fast Freight Line offers the [illegible] public every [illegible] for patronizing their line. Travelers are furnished with superior accommodations in new and easy riding thorough-brace wagons, [illegible]. The stages lay over each night on the road, at good and convenient stations, so that [illegible] are not deprived of their rest.

From Astoria.—By the arrival of the steamer John H. Couch last evening, we have the Astoria Gazette of Monday, from which we learn that the schooner Crosby sailed for Victoria on Saturday last. The schooner Pacific was at Sand Island yesterday morning. The bark Live Yankee had [illegible] to Astoria after waiting to go to sea for some days. The steamer Pacific sailed for San Francisco on the 4th, and the Montana on the 5th.

Living on Remittances.—John Rich, when asked in Recorder's Court yesterday as to how he got a living, replied that he was supplied by remittances from a relative. The [illegible] he receives from the Recorder here are so frequent that he lives in jail a great portion of the time, at the expense of the tax payers. If he has any friends who are able to support him it would be a relief to this [illegible] to have them maintain him elsewhere.

[illegible] a Lie.—We have so little confidence in the [illegible] of Victoria reports concerning matters touching upon the mines, that we very much question the truth of the [illegible] report this morning from New Westminster. Those people are not to be trusted in everything.

Easter Monday.—A new holiday was calebrated at Victoria by the [illegible], bar, jury, peers, business men, &c., on April 2d. The legislature, courts, and business, [illegible] on the occasion.

Fell Through.—A man fell through one of the traps along the river front on Monday evening, and was severely injured. We were unable to learn his name. He was picked up for dead, but consciousness was restored [illegible].

Jewelry Sale.—The attention of parties wanting anything in the line of jewelry, is directed to the new advertisement of Messrs. Goldsmith Brothers, who are disposing of their stock at greatly reduced prices.

Grand Concert.—The proposed concert, by the 14th [illegible] Band, will be given this evening at Willamette Theatre. The Band will arrive at 10 o'clock by the steamer Fannie Troup from Vancouver.

Cedar Lumber.—The steamer Rescue, Capt. Olsen, arrived at six o'clock last evening, from the Cowlitz river. The cargo was principally composed of cedar lumber from the new mill of Smith & Co., ten miles above Monticello.

Assault.—E. J. Dougherty was called upon to loan the city $10 yesterday, on account of having been convicted before Recorder Hoffman, for assault committed upon John Sunderland.

Real Estate Sales.—In addition to groceries and furniture, Mr. Richardson will to day dispose of the real estate as advertised.

Annual Festival.—The Portland Liedertafel Singing Union propose having a celebration early next month, being the annual festival of May.

[illegible]—April showers have cooled the atmosphere somewhat the past twenty-four hours, and yet the weather is "salty."

Change.—It will be seen by the card of Drs. Chapman & Watkins, that the latter gentleman has removed to the south west corner of Taylor and Seventh streets.

Times and messages at the telegraph office for Carlisle Stewart, Maj. M. Robertson and Wm. Friend.

The [illegible] ship Sierra Nevada sailed on Monday from [illegible] for Portland.

Launch.—The new screw steamer Commodore Perry, will be launched at Milwaukie on Saturday next.

Statistical.—San Francisco must be a thirsty city. We learn from late found in Langley's Directory and elsewhere that the city has 2,612 bars at which liquors are sold. The amount of license collected is over $50,000. One of the papers alluding to rum's doings there says "Two thousand nine hundred and four drunks are reported for the last year. Estimating each drunk to result from a pint of ardent, we have five hogsheads and forty eight gallons accounted for. Every drunk causes six hours of headache, on the average, so that we have 47,424 hours of human misery to add to the sum total of our calculations." After the above calculation we can perhaps understand the following from the Alta of late date speaking of Mary Holt who died in the streets of San Francisco recently, the Alta says: "She commenced serving in the county jail this city January 7th 1860, since which time she has served the following number of days: In 1860 210 days: in 1861 251; in 1862, 160; in 1863 during a considerable part of which year she was in Sacramento, 85 days: In 1864 290: in 1865 245; in 1866 48; total in six years and two months 1,318 days. In addition to this she spent during the same years at least 200 days in the station-house awaiting trial on different charges."

The New Shackle.—We observe that the gang of out door convicts from the Penitentiary now wear the newly invented shackle, which will soon be patented for Mr. Gardiner of this city. The effect of their wearing this new contrivance is very perceptible. When walking to and from their work they are more erect, and there is not that clash of chains heard, nor lugging of heavy iron ball over the shoulder by the refractory. We are informed that the convicts are not so confident of an opportunity to escape with the new shackles on them, so they wear it more easily. They attend to their work better, and in every way show the superior advantages the new invention has conferred, not alone upon themselves but on the State being, as it is partly intended, for assistance in lessening the responsibility of those in charge of the gang, and giving greater security for the safety of the convict, with less hardship and bother. The invention is so simple that we wonder why it was not ever thought of before.

Fire From Kerosene Oil.—The greatest danger of fire exists in case of accidents in breaking kerosene lamps, and people cannot be too careful in their manner of using the oil in every possible shape. A Mrs. Whitner accidentally pushed a kerosene lamp from the table where she was reading, in Bloomington, Illinois, not long ago, and as it broke it set fire to the oil. Mr. Whitner instantly smothered the fire with shawls, pillows, &c., thinking he had a narrow escape from conflagration. To his surprise, in a few minutes he heard a fire behind the plastering of the wall, roaring like a chimney. Some of the liquid fire had crept through a crevice in the floor, not over the twentieth of an inch wide, and ignited the woodwork in the ceiling. He broke it through, put out the lower part of the fire, and was obliged to break through from the outside, and also in the second story, before he could save the house.

Thanks.—On several occasions our business friends in this city have taken it upon themselves to send to our residence packages, from choice fruits and meats, to the staff of life. The last occurrence of this kind happened on Monday evening, when our friend C. Dills left at our door a large sized keg of very superior Islands sugar. It is with no small degree of gratitude that we acknowledge those favors. They awaken in us generous impulses, and if we accept of them as tokens of appreciation of our labors in behalf of the community, we shall show our esteem for the donors by a strict perseverance in the course we have been pursuing. Gentlemen, you all have our thanks.

Speaker Colfax's Lecture.—The correspondent of the Union from New York, writes that "Schuyler Colfax's lecture on the Overland Journey is the popular entertainment of the winter. He has given it twice a few weeks apart in New York, to audiences which bubbled over the brim of the immense Cooper Institute, and filtered into all the anterooms, and even into the street. He has declined one hundred and seventy-three invitations to enlighten with it the people of cities and hamlets from Maine to Iowa, and New York to Virginia. One wonders if his gavel so fills his honest hand that he can refuse without a sigh to open that white palm for $20,000. The sum has a comfortable sound."

Idaho Freight.—The Sacramento Union of March 22d says "There are now some fifty tons of Idaho freight in the city awaiting transportation to the mines. The price of freight now asked by the teamsters is eighteen cents per pound, but responsible parties connected with the Teamster's Association stand ready to contract for the delivery of freight, after the 1st of May, from the eastern terminus of the Pacific Railroad to Ruby City, Owyhee, at twelve cents per pound.

From Boise.

We gather the following from the Boise City correspondence of the Walla Walla Statesman:

Great numbers are leaving for Blackfoot from here and South Boise. Drifters at the latter place, and men for almost any class of work in which they are experienced can get seven dollars a day wages. Some of the mills have closed down, rather than pay the rates during the short days when work cannot be carried on for full hours.

YUBA WAGON ROAD COMPANY.

Under the charter granted to the Yuba and Big Cammas Prairie Wagon Road Co., they will soon go to work. The original corporation, Messrs. Dilly, Dr. Stuart, H. W. O. Magery, and W. F. Stocking, propose to form it into a joint stock company. It is the only really good road into the Yuba, and will cost about $20,000. It is as good a road property as any in the country and the only pass by this route. No one lives on the road except some quartz workers. The whole route runs through a quartz district. The charter is for ten years, and must be a very valuable property. It is the only road for produce and hay into that country; it is almost direct from Volcano, and thence to Salmon Falls on the Owyhee river, and commences at the old emigrant road in Cammas Prairie. The rates of toll are just half what the other roads demand. It will be ready for travel by the by the spring of 1867.

EMPIRE STATE LEDGE.

The discovery of the Empire State ledge, at Yuba, by Hollister & Parrish, has made much excitement. It was originally discovered by these men whilst digging clay out of the bank for a chimney. After striking the ledge they proceeded to cut through it, and at last accounts had cut six feet, but had not yet got through. They say that in richness it discounts the famed "Poorman" ledge of Owyhee; but then the latter is in litigation, and that invariably raises the character of a ledge in point of richness or value.

On Buena Vista Bar, March 25th, a man named McKay was shot and killed by another named Dunn. Cause—a former quarrel and an old grudge.

The Indians on Burnt river, and also on Birch and Willow creeks, are troublesome again. Mr. Miller's ranch on Burnt river, was attacked on March 30, and a lot of stock driven off, it being the third time it has suffered from Indian incursions this spring. A stage passenger was drowned on the Weiser river on the 28th ult.

Card from Teamsters.—The Walla Walla Statesman publishes the following card from teamsters and freighters:

We, the undersigned, teamsters and freighters, living in Walla Walla Valley, and being engaged in the transportation of goods from the Columbia river inland, beg leave to present the following facts, to all those who are interested, that we prefer freighting from Wallula to Blackfoot, Boise and Colville, than from any other points on the Columbia river—

W. A. Ball, John O'Donald, J. W. Harbert, Richard Farrell, John S. Cairns, D. M. Grow, Charles Russell, Baldwin & Whitman, W. Berndiog, J. C. Calle, E. T. Howe, Milton Evens, J. W. Morrison, T. D. Williams, G. A. Evans, A. J. Evans, G. W. Evans, A. L. Jones, John Dunn, P. M. Lynch, S. Clayton, C. Jacobs & Co., W. M. Ewing, George F. Thomas, Henry L. Boyle, S. Linkton.

Messrs. Smith & Davis, of Portland, have always on hand a good supply of the Genuine Hall's Pulmonary Balsam. No family should be without a bottle of this valuable remedy in the house.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than *from ordinary stimulants. Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated

PLANTATION BITTERS,

Which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities, and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and must supersede all other tonics where a healthy, gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sassafras, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars, see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of Impostors. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U. S. Stamp unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in Bulk, is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle, or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U. S. Law, and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on several parties re-filling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

In the Sea

The salt wind blows upon my lips
As if I were at sea
Where [illegible] were crushed among
The rocks of [illegible] a Wat
I was dark then; 'tis light now,
And the sails are leaning low.

In her eyes I put the seaweed here,
And bid its face not his
And hope until the tide will be
More pitying than this
The wind turns, the tide turns —
They take what hope there is

My life goes on as thine would go
With all its sweetness spilled
My God, what sad old tune heart of two
But one which one is stilled!
Through heart-wreck, or home-wreck,
The happy sparrows build

Though boats go down, men build anew,
Whatever winds may blow;
If blight be in the wheat one year,
We trust again and sow
Though grief comes, and changes
The sunshine into snow

Some have their dead, where, sweet and soon,
The summers bloom and go
The sea withholds my dead,—I walk
The bar when tides are low
And wonder the grave grass
Can have the heart to grow!

Flow on, O unconsenting sea,
And keep my dead below;
Though night—O utter night—my soul,
Delude thee long, I know,
Or life comes or Death comes,
God leads the eternal flow,

Idaho Mines.

We find the following in relation to the mining operations in Idaho, in the report of the "Mint Central Committee" of Idaho. The names signed to the report are, E. J. Curtis, chairman, H. C Riggs, A. W. Flournoy, Joseph Miller, John Cummins, Hill Beachy and C. Jacobs:

Mr L. Hartwig, Mining Engineer, whose long experience in Mexico as a practical miner engaged in the reduction of silver ore, and whose perfect familiarity with the extent and mineral resources of the South Boise country, reports as follows to the committee:

"The number of mills in Alturas county, which lies within one hundred miles of Boise City, may be designated as follows:

Harris Mill	12 stamps
Idaho Mill	12 "
Farnham Mill	30 "
Weddingham Mill	10 "
Libby Mill	10 "
Nelson Mill	30 "
Maj Speers Mill	20 "
De Frees Mill	10 "
Total number of Mills	8
Total number of stamps	134

"There are now in operation about twenty arastras."

It is estimated that from three to six new mills will be erected within six months in the Yuba District, with from ten to forty stamps each. But should there be no increase of mills other than those at present in operation and course of construction, the amount of bullion from the mills and arastras as above designated, must reach $4,500,000 the present year.

The yield from the placer mines is variously estimated at from $120,000 to $265,000 per annum. The Committee is of the opinion that the amount will not fall short of $120,000 per year. There can be no doubt that every dollar invested in the mining and milling property in the South Boise mines will return in due time its ten fold profits.

With well directed labor and skill in the reduction of the ore, and the necessary amount of capital to open the mines, under the management of practical and competent men, the South Boise mines will rival the richest found on the continent.

The milling companies have had much to contend against during the past year. The disadvantages were of that nature which could not be guarded against, and which in many respects are common and incident to new enterprises and operations. The lateness of the season at which their mills were completed, the severity of the winter—which prevented the opening of the mines and the transportation of rock to the mills—though it could not be foreseen, may be guarded against and avoided in the future.

The committee have received from the Owyhee mining district the following able and comprehensive report from D. H. Purdy, the late distinguished Assistant Secretary of the Council of this Territory, which report may be considered as correct as can be made at this time:

OWYHEE, I. T., March 9, 1866.

HON. E. J. CURTIS, Chairman of Committee on Mint Statistics—SIR: Not long since I received a circular from the Committee of which you are Chairman, soliciting of me such information relative to the mineral wealth and resources of this county, as might come within my knowledge and observation, to heighten as an inducement to Congress in favor of the establishment of an UNITED STATES BRANCH MINT AT BOISE CITY. Feeling the necessity of such an institution, in common with the entire business population of this Territory, I cheerfully and respectfully transmit the following report:

It is difficult to estimate the amount of shipments of gold dust from this county during the past three years.

O H PURDY

In addition to the above, the committee have received from Hon. Gilmore Hays the County Recorder of Owyhee county, a systematic report, corroborating the facts so set forth in the report of Mr Purdy

The letter of J A Chittenden, Esq, Assayer at Ruby City, Owyhee, a gentleman of great learning and scientific attainments, gives additional weight to the report of Mr Purdy and for which report and letter Judge Hays and Mr Chittenden will accept the thanks of the Committee

From a very creditable source we have the following statement showing the amount of treasure passing through the office of Wells, Fargo & Co., at the Dalles, Oregon, from April, 1865, to September, 1865, a period of six months

From	Canyon	Dalles	Up River	Total

The Smith Murder Case

The Albany Democrat publishes the following account of this atrocious murder, and of the trial and sentence of the guilty fratricide

We give below the material testimony against Thomas Smith, convicted at the Circuit Court last week of the murder of his brother's wife, Mrs Barbara Smith. The chief witnesses for the prosecution were the two eldest daughters of the deceased, Rhoda Ann, aged 13 years and Louisa, aged 11 years. The indictment charging the prisoner with the murder of his own brother, Sidney Smith, was withheld by the prosecution

Rhoda Ann Smith deposed substantially as follows: On Friday, March 16, early in the afternoon father and mother, uncle Thomas (the prisoner) and myself were in the [illegible]. Uncle rose, walked to the door and said "this will never do," and went out. Father was standing with his back to the fire place smoking his pipe, mother sat with baby in her lap. I was sitting with my back to the door. Pretty soon the door opened and I heard a pistol report, and father instantly fell with a shot in his forehead. I arose at once, heard another shot and turning, saw Tom with a pistol in his hand pointed at mother. She was shot in the right breast. She laid baby down, ran into the orchard, and uncle ran after her. He caught her, dragged her back to the woodpile near the house, and there mother sat down. I sat by her. She begged for uncle to [illegible] her from uncle. He caught her wrist and dragged her into the smoke house and shut the door. After a while he came out and went into the house. She saw her father lying in the house where he had fallen and her mother lay dead in the smoke house. Prisoner told her that she must say that her father had killed mother and then shot himself, and threatened to kill her if she didn't. She did tell persons so until the following Sunday morning.

Louisa Smith substantially swore that—On the fatal day she and her little brother and sister were playing in the smoke house. She heard the report of a firearm, and heard her mother scream. Instantly after saw her mother running to the orchard and her uncle Tom pursuing her. He caught her, led her towards where the children were and cried out to witness to run into the house and see if her father was dead. Witness obeyed and saw her father lying on the floor, bleeding, senseless and dying. She then ran out again, saw her uncle drag her mother into the smoke house and heard her mother cry "Rhoda Ann, don't let Tom kill me." After her uncle dragged her mother into the smoke house she heard screams, and pretty soon he came out. He told her she must report the same story as her sister as to the murders, under the same threat.

Dr. Crawford testified as to the character of the wounds on the person of the wounded woman. The pistol shot in the breast was not a fatal one. There was a severe, deep cut on the outside of the hand, near the root of the little finger, which penetrated to the bone; a slashed cut on the back of the same hand, a deep, long cut on the left jaw; cuts across the inside of the fingers of the right hand, as if she had clutched the murderous blade; and a deep, terrible stab in the neck, just above the breast bone, which separated the wind pipe and the blood vessels on the right side of it. This would produce death. Smith had received but one shot—the fatal wound in the forehead.

Betty Evans and Cunningham, two neighbors who were passing Smith's farm about an hour after the affair, stopped. They found Smith dying, but utterly unconscious, and Mrs. Smith lay dead. Thomas Smith told them his brother had killed his wife and then shot himself. The two eldest daughters told the same story, but further developments the next day aroused suspicion against the prisoner, and on Saturday evening he was arrested for the double, most atrocious murder.

There is a profound mystery yet unraveled as to the cause of this murder. The testimony of the daughters fails to elicit any cause whatever, and no previous provocation on either side between the brothers can be traced. There is an important link yet wanting in the narrative of the murder to explain the cause which led to it.

Smith received his sentence on Saturday noon last. He betrayed very little emotion, and made no response himself to the usual question as to whether he had anything to say in his own behalf. Judge Thornton, as one of his counsel, however, begged the Court to fix the day of execution as long as possible. Judge Boise delivered the sentence in a very calm, impressive tone. He told the prisoner to indulge no hope of escape from the death penalty—that the startling atrocity of his crime forbade mercy to him in this world. He advised him to devote the brief time which remained to him in life to a preparation for the other world beyond the grave. The sentence was then pronounced: that the prisoner be hung by the neck on Tuesday, May 15th. The prisoner was then taken back to his cell. He is heavily manacled, the shackles being rivetted, not locked about his ankles, and a heavy chain, bound to a strong staple in the floor, gives him a few feet to walk around his cell. He bears up wonderfully under his fate, and is certainly a person of remarkable nerve and stoicism. Smith is about five and a half feet high, spare but squarely built, has greyish blue eyes, a face short and tapering sharply to the chin, and dark hair and whiskers. He is about thirty five years of age.

Chile.

STATISTICS.

A glance at the map will best show the geographical relations of Chile to the other States. Her boundary formation is curious, but not less so than that of the surfaces of the country, which is formed almost entirely by the western slope of the Andes mountains. The streams all have a westerly flow through mountain passes rather than valleys, and the country is undulating, yet it is by no means sterile and barren. The table lands are very fertile, while the washings of the mountains keep the small but numerous valleys or coves annually renewed with rich soil. The climate is highly suitable to vegetation, and is considered to be among the most healthy and genial in the South American continent.

The chief wealth of the State is in its numerous mines. Within twenty-five leagues of Copiapo, the principal northern town, and within the single province of Atacama, there are nineteen silver mining districts, containing two hundred and seventy-five mines, worked in 1858 by about three thousand miners, and also several gold and numerous copper mines. In 1851 the mining district of Caldera exported 2,500,000 pounds of silver ore, 3,000,000 ounces of silver bars and ingots, and $1,000,000 in value of copper ores. In 1857 the copper mines of the entire State produced in value and exported to the amount of $10,750,389. The coal found in the Chilean coast mines is suitable for steam and domestic, but not for smelting, purposes. They have been successfully worked since 1825.

Chile has five hundred miles of railways, and ranks the fifth of the countries possessing such improvements, if we take into consideration its surface and population.

The area of the State is estimated at 249,952 square miles. The population in 1865 was about 1,314,267. The revenue of the State for 1862 was $5,287,155, and the expenditure $6,228,532. The total public debt, foreign and domestic, is $14,519,625. The exports in 1864 amounted to $27,242,553, and imports to $18,867,305. The standing army numbers 3,000 men. The militia returns muster about 190,000. The navy consists of five armed steamers, mounting thirty guns.

ITS HISTORY.

The Spaniards, after the conquest of Peru in 1530, found the Indian tribes which inhabited Chile paying allegiance to the Peruvian Incas, and determined on its occupation also. The war which ensued resulted, in 1541, by a treaty made on the present site of Biobio, by which the dominion of Spain was acknowledged. Chile was thenceforth a viceroyalty of Spain until 1820, when the State revolted, and succeeded, after a sixteen years war, in throwing off the yoke of Spain and establishing a republic, which has existed, with several slight and brief interruptions, to the present time. Two revolts against the legal authorities occurred in 1851. The first was begun by Colonel Urriola, and it found its end in the single battle which that officer fought and in which he was killed. The second was led by General Cruz, a defeated candidate for the Presidency, but it failed.

THINGS TO BE REMEMBERED ALL ROUND.—The Boston Evening Transcript of February 28th has the following

1. Andrew Johnson was not the first choice of the majority of the people for the Presidency. He is in the Executive chair as the result of the assassination of his chief. Surely this is a reason why he should be modest, and not dogmatical, even if he feels conscientiously bound to differ from the larger portion of those whose votes put him in office

2. Andrew Johnson has been treated with trust and hope, with forbearance for his personal weakness and gentleness toward his ill considered talk—up to the moment when he indulged in the harangue of the 22d instant. Surely this is a reason why a conciliatory spirit should now first be shown by him and his special friends and advisors, if he sincerely desires to further the work of pacifying and restoring the Union.

3. The Committee of Fifteen—voted for by some of those now the warmest supporters of Andrew Johnson—was raised by the representatives of the people, chosen directly by the people to deal with the present exigency, and on that Committee are some of the truest men, ablest statesmen and coolest patriots of the times. Surely this is a reason why the stigmatizing of that Committee as a central directory of usurpers is to be condemned as an outrage by the popular sentiment of the land, let it come from whatever lips it may.

4. The main work to be done is plainly to have the control of the late rebel States in loyal hands, and to have the pledge of the nation to adcor and protect an oppressed race, solemnly given in the anti slavery amendment, fully redeemed. Surely this is a reason why primary if not exclusive attention should be devoted to seeing that the republican institutions receive no more injuries from the only section that has ever sought their overthrow

5. Who shall be the next President? who shall hold offices and pocket emoluments? what party shall get the ascendancy merely to reward partisans? are questions of small moment to the people North and South, as compared with the question how the nation shall be made free and democratic for all time to come. Surely this a reason why the patriotism of the country should follow principles and not men, and insist that the will of the people must be made law and not the will of those who have no right to do or say anything except as the servants of the people

6. All history abroad and all history at home proves that the great temptation to centralize power and indulge in despotism peculiarly besets the executive and not the legislative departments of government. The one man assumptions, not the assumptions of representative bodies, are the assumptions to be dreaded. Surely this is a reason why the privileges, functions and independence of Congress should be recognized and sustained, and why care should be taken not to abridge them whoever may assail them.

These things remembered all round, and remembered especially by the people, will insure peace and safety and prosperity to the whole country

THE OLDEST MAN IN THE WORLD.—Joseph Crele, who was probably the oldest man in the world, died in Caledonia, a little town of Wisconsin, on the 27th of January last, at the age of one hundred and forty one years. Twice three score and ten years may be called a ripe old age. He attained an age greater by twenty years than that enjoyed by the next oldest man of modern times, Jean Claude Jacob, a member of the French National Assembly, who was called the "Dean of the human species," and who died at the age of one hundred and twenty one. This man bore arms at Braddock's defeat, was an old man when Jackson defeated Packenham at New Orleans, venerable when Taylor whipped Santa Anna at Buena Vista, and yet was not too old to rejoice when Lee surrendered to Grant.

Joseph Crele was born of French parents, in what is now Detroit, but which was then only an Indian trading station in 1725. The record of his baptism in the Catholic church in that city establishes this fact beyond a doubt. He was a resident of Wisconsin for about a century, and was the "oldest citizen" in that State beyond any dispute. Whenever the "oldest citizen" was alluded to every Wisconsonian declared Joseph Crele was the man meant. He was first married in New Orleans in 1755, after having grown to be a bachelor of thirty. A few years after his marriage he settled at Prairie du Chien, while Wisconsin was yet a province of France. Before the Revolutionary war he was employed to carry letters between Prairie du Chien and Green Bay. A few years ago he was called as a witness in the Circuit Court of Wisconsin, in a case involving the title to certain real estate at Prairie du Chien, to give testimony in relation to events that transpired eighty years before, and many years before the litigants were dreamt of.

For some years past he had resided at Caledonia with a daughter by his third wife. This child was a little over seventy years of age a couple of years ago, but we do not know whether she survives her father or not. He was sixty nine when she was born. Up to 1864 Mr. Crele was as hale and hearty as most men of seventy. He could walk several miles without fatigue, and was frequently in the habit of chopping wood for the family use. He went to all elections, and, from the time he first voted for Washington, he had always voted the straight out Union ticket. He had no bad habits, except that he was an inveterate smoker, but that is not considered among the small vices in the land of Grant and Sherman. In person he was rather above the medium height, spare in flesh, but showing evidences of having been in his prime—a century or so before—a man of sinewy strength. Of late years a haunting sense of loneliness overwhelmed and seemed to sadden him. The only weakness of mind which he ever betrayed was in the last year or two of his existence, when he frequently remarked, with a startling air of sadness, that he feared that perhaps "Death had forgotten him;" but he would always add, with more cheerfulness, that he felt sure "God had not."

BOUTWELL ON IMPARTIAL RIGHTS.—George S. Boutwell, of Massachusetts, one of the ablest and truest statesmen in the country, in a speech which he recently delivered before the Equal Suffrage Association of Washington, states as follows one of the questions of the day:

I say this is not a white man's country, it is not a black man's country, it is not a red man's country; it is a country which by Divine Providence has been preserved during centuries for us, with all its fertility and resources, where we might create and build homes and government founded upon Christian civilization. This is a country—for it was so willed—to which should come all people whom God has chosen to place upon the earth. He is, in some form or other, an enemy to the human race who claims this as the white man's country or the black man's country. It is the country of man, set apart and dedicated by the Supreme Ruler of the world. For us who are expecting and about to enter on the enjoyment of restored Union, for the first time to announce that this is a white man's country, is the basest ingratitude. If such were our opinion, we should, two years and more ago, before we invited men of another color to participate with us to jeopard and sacrifice our lives in defense of the country, we should have declared when it was free and restored it should be a white man's country. It does not lie in our mouths after we have accepted the blood of these men, after they have stood in the ranks and on the field of battle in the place of your fathers, husbands, sons and brothers, now that they have fallen and sleep the sleep of death, and their bones bleach upon the plains of the South, to say that this is the white man's country. They have earned in the noblest manner and the largest sacrifice the right to call this their country.

How much superior is this thought and language to that employed by the President in his speech to the delegation of colored men on the 7th of February.

ANOTHER FLOURING MILL.—Messrs. Gray & Simes called on us yesterday to say, that they with Mr. Anderson have formed a co partnership for the purpose of building a flouring and custom mill at Gray's Station, sixteen miles below this city. They intend putting in two run of burrs this summer, with good machinery to match, which one of the firm will shortly go to San Francisco to purchase. They have a water power of ten and a half feet fall, dam and race already made, and are intending to commence getting out timbers for the building this week. Now as there are pretty certain to be two mills built in the valley this summer, there is every encouragement offered to farmers to sow all the wheat they possibly can.—Boise Statesman.

U. S. Marshal's Notice.

WHEREAS, an information has been filed in the District Court of the United States for the District of Oregon, on the 4th day of April, A D 1866, by J N Dolph, Esq, District Attorney on behalf of the United States against Twenty-two Boxes of Cigars, alleging in substance that on or about the 10th day of February, A D 1866, in the City of Portland in said District, the Cigars aforesaid were sold and passed out of the hands of the manufacturer without having stamps denoting the tax thereon so affixed that the boxes could not be opened without effacing or destroying the said stamps, against the form of the statute in such cases made and provided, and praying process against said Cigars that the same may be declared forfeited, and that notice be given to all persons claiming the same to appear and show cause on the return day of said process why such forfeiture should not be decreed

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the warrant, under the seal of said Court to me directed and delivered, I hereby give public notice to all persons claiming the said Twenty-two boxes of Cigars or in any way interested therein, that they be and appear before the said District Court to be held in the City of Portland, in said District, on Monday the 7th day of May, A D 1866, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, then and there to interpose their claims and make their allegations in that behalf

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS AT tended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above mentioned and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every discussion any connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once relaxed, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor.— The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself and restores it to its normal condition

Prices Greatly Reduced!

American Double Turbine Water Wheel

IS NOW MANUFACTURED BY THE OREGON IRON Works, in the city of Portland, and orders for the same can be filled immediately. We have a small supply of the different sizes, from 10 inches to 48 inches in diameter. That we may know the proper sized wheel you require, measure your water in the following way: Take the width of the stream, the average depth, and the distance it flows in a minute.

All the wheels now in use give universal satisfaction. Both the construction of the wheel and its performance, commend it to the better judgment of all minds capable of appreciating the highest development of mechanical construction. Therefore it has conquered the most violent opposition.

This wheel is especially adapted to mining purposes. It is light, and can be easily packed into the mountains. Wheels weighing from 100 to 300 pounds will yield from 10 to 40 horse power, under a head of 25 or 30 feet. They are the cheapest wheel to set up known, as they are so arranged as to produce the greatest power possible from the water used.

The prices of these wheels have now been reduced to the ability of all. Come and see them or send for a circular to

In the Sea.

The salt wind blows upon my cheek
As it blew a year ago,
When twenty boats were crushed among
The rocks of Norman's Woe.
'T was dark then; 't is light now,
And the sails are leaning low.

In dreams, I pall the sea weed o'er,
And find a face not his,
And hope another tide will be
More pitying than this;
The wind turns, the tide turns,—
They take what hope there is.

My life goes on as thine would go,
With all its sweetness spilled;
My God! why should one heart of two
Beat on when one is stilled?
Through heart wreck, or home-wreck,
The happy sparrows build.

Though boats go down, men build anew,
Whatever winds may blow;
If blight be in the wheat one year,
We trust again and sow,
Though grief comes, and changes
The sunshine into snow.

Some have their dead, where, sweet and soon,
The summers bloom and go;
The sea withholds my dead,—I walk
The bar when tides are low,
And wonder the grave-grass
Can have the heart to grow!

Flow on, O unconsenting sea,
And keep my dead below;
Though night—O utter night!—my soul,
Delude thee long, I know,
Or Life comes or Death comes,
God leads the eternal flow.

Idaho Mines.

We find the following in relation to the mining operations in Idaho, in the report of the "Mint Central Committee" of Idaho. The names signed to the report are, E. J. Curtis, chairman, H. C. Riggs, A. W. Flourney, Joseph Miller, John Cummins, Hill Beachy and C. Jacobs:

Mr. L. Hartwig, Mining Engineer, whose long experience in Mexico as a practical miner engaged in the reduction of silver ore, and whose perfect familiarity with the extent and mineral resources of the South Boise country, reports as follows to the committee

"The number of mills in Alturas county, which lies within one hundred miles of Boise City, may be designated as follows:

Harris Mill	12	stamps.
Idaho Mill	12	"
Farnham Mill	30	"
Waddingham Mill	10	"
Libby Mill	10	"
Nelson Mill	30	"
Maj Speers' Mill	20	"
Do Frees Mill	10	"
Total number of Mills	8
Total number of stamps	134

"There are now in operation about twenty arastras."

It is estimated that from three to six new mills will be erected within six months in the Yuba District, with from ten to forty stamps each. But should there be no increase of mills other than those at present in operation and course of construction, the amount of bullion from the mills and arastras as above designated, must reach $4,500,000 the present year.

The yield from the placer mines is variously estimated at from $120,000 to $205,000 per annum. The Committee is of the opinion that the amount will not fall short of $120,000 per year. There can be no doubt but that every dollar invested in the mining and milling property in the South Boise mines will return in due time its ten fold profits.

With well directed labor and skill in the reduction of the ore, and the necessary amount of capital to open the mines, under the management of practical and competent men, the South Boise mines will rival the richest found on the continent.

The milling companies have had much to contend against during the past year. The disadvantages were of that nature which could not be guarded against, and which in many respects are common and incident to new enterprises and operations. The lateness of the season at which their mills were completed, the severity of the winter—which prevented the opening of the mines and the transportation of rock to the mills—though it could not be foreseen, may be guarded against and avoided in the future.

The committee have received from the Owyhee mining district the following able and comprehensive report from O. H. Purdy, the late distinguished Assistant Secretary of the Council of this Territory, which report may be considered as correct as can be made at this time:

Owyhee, I. T., March 8, 1866.

Hon. E. J. Curtis, Chairman of Committee on Mint Statistics—Sir: Not long since I received a circular from the Committee of which you are Chairman, soliciting of me such information relative to the mineral wealth and resources of this county, as might come within my knowledge and observation, to be given as an inducement to Congress in favor of the establishment of an United States Branch Mint at Boise City. Feeling the necessity of such an institution, in common with the entire loyal population of this Territory, I cheerfully and respectfully transmit the following report:

O. H. PURDY.

In addition to the above, the committee have received from Hon Gilmore Hays, the County Recorder of Owyhee county, a systematic report, corroborating the facts so set forth in the report of Mr. Purdy

The letter of J. A. Chittenden, Esq., Assayer at Ruby City, Owyhee, a gentleman of great learning and scientific attainments, gives additional weight to the report of Mr Purdy, and for which report and letter Judge Hays and Mr Chittenden will accept the thanks of the Committee.

From a very creditable source we have the following statement, showing the amount of treasure passing through the office of Wells, Fargo & Co., at the Dalles, Oregon, from April, 1865, to September, 1865, a period of six months

The Smith Murder Case.

The Albany Democrat publishes the following account of this atrocious murder, and of the trial and sentence of the guilty fratricide

We give below the material testimony against Thomas Smith, convicted at the Circuit Court here last week of the murder of his brother's wife, Mrs Barbara Smith. The chief witnesses for the prosecution were the two oldest daughters of the deceased, Rhoda Ann, aged 16 years and Levora, aged 9 years. The indictment charging the prisoner with the murder of his own brother, Sidney Smith, was withheld by the prosecution.

Rhoda Ann Smith deposed substantially as follows. On Friday March 10, early in the afternoon father and mother, uncle Thomas (the prisoner) and myself were in the room, uncle Tom rose, walked to the door, said, "This will never do me," and went out. Father was standing with his back to the fire place smoking his pipe; mother sat with baby in her lap, I was sitting with my back to the door. Pretty soon the door opened and I heard a pistol report, and father instantly fell with a shot in his forehead. I arose at once, heard another shot and, turning, saw Tom with a pistol in his hand pointed at mother. She was shot in the right breast. She laid baby down, ran into the orchard, and Tom ran after her. He caught her, dragged her back to the wood pile near the house, and there mother sat down. I sat by her. She begged Tom to save her from uncle. He caught her wrist and dragged her into the smoke house and shut the door. After a while he came out and went into the house. She found her father dying in the house where he had fallen, and her mother lay dead in the smoke house. Prisoner told her that she must say that her father had killed mother and then shot himself, and threatened to kill her if she didn't. She did tell persons so until the following Sunday morning.

Levora Smith substantially swore that—On the fatal day she and her little brother and sister were playing in the smoke house. She heard the report of a firearm, and heard her mother scream. Instantly after saw her mother running in the orchard and her uncle Tom pursuing her. He caught her, led her towards where the children were, and cried out to witness to run into the house and see if her father was dead. Witness obeyed and saw her father lying on the floor, bleeding, senseless and dying. She then ran out again, saw her uncle drag her mother into the smoke house, and heard her mother cry "Rhoda Ann, don't let Tom kill me." After her uncle dragged her mother into the smoke house she heard screams, and pretty soon he came out. He told her she must report the same story as her sister as to the murders, under the same threat.

Dr. Crawford testified as to the character of the wounds on the person of the wounded woman. The pistol shot in the breast was not a fatal one. There was a severe deep cut on the outside of the hand, near the root of the little finger, which penetrated to the bone, a slashed cut on the back of the same hand; a deep, long cut on the left jaw; cuts across the inside of the fingers of the right hand, as if she had clutched the murderous blade; and a deep, terrible stab in the neck, just above the breast bone, which separated the wind pipe and the blood vessels on the right side of it. This would produce death. Smith had received but one shot—the fatal wound in the forehead.

Berry Evans and Cunningham, two neighbors, who were passing Smith's farm about an hour after the affair, stopped. They found Smith dying, but utterly unconscious, and Mrs. Smith lay dead. Thomas Smith told them his brother had killed his wife and then shot himself. The two oldest daughters told the same story, but further developments the next day aroused suspicion against the prisoner, and on Saturday evening he was arrested for the double, most atrocious murder.

There is a profound mystery yet unraveled as to the cause of this murder. The testimony of the daughters fails to elicit any cause whatever, and no previous provocation on either side between the brothers can be traced. There is an important link yet wanting in the narrative of the murder to explain the cause which led to it.

Smith received his sentence on Saturday noon last. He betrayed very little emotion, and made no response himself to the usual question as to whether he had anything to say in his own behalf. Judge Thornton, as one of his counsel, however, begged the Court to fix the day of execution as long as possible. Judge Boise delivered the sentence in a very calm, impressive tone. He told the prisoner to indulge no hope of escape from the death penalty—that the startling atrocity of his crime forbade mercy to him in this world. He advised him to devote the brief time which remained to him in life to a preparation for the other world beyond the grave. The sentence was then pronounced: that the prisoner be hung by the neck on Tuesday, May 15th. The prisoner was then taken back to his cell. He is heavily manacled, the shackles being rivetted, not locked about his ankles and a heavy chain, bound to a strong staple in the floor, gives him a few feet to walk around his cell. He bears up wonderfully under his fate, and is certainly a person of remarkable nerve and stoicism. Smith is about five and a half feet high, spare but squarely built, has greyish blue eyes, a face short and tapering sharply to the chin, and dark hair and whiskers. He is about thirty-five years of age.

Chile.

STATISTICS.

A glance at the map will best show the geographical relations of Chile to the other States. Her boundary formation is curious, but not less so than that of the surfaces of the country, which is formed almost entirely by the western slope of the Andes mountains. The streams all have a westerly flow through mountain passes rather than valleys, and the country is undulating; yet it is by no means sterile and barren. The table lands are very fertile, while the washings of the mountains keep the small but numerous valleys or coves annually renewed with rich soil. The climate is highly suitable to vegetation, and is considered to be among the most healthy and genial in the South American continent

The chief wealth of the State is in its numerous mines. Within twenty-five leagues of Copiapo, the principal northern town, and within the single province of Atacama, there are nineteen silver mining districts, containing two hundred and seventy-five mines, worked in 1858 by about three thousand miners; and also several gold and numerous copper mines. In 1851 the mining district of Caldea exported 2,500,000 pounds of silver ore, 3,000,000 ounces of silver bars and ingots, and $4,000,000 in value of coppper ores. In 1857 the copper mines of the entire State produced in value and exported to the amount of $10,700,589. The coal found in the Chilean coast mines is suitable for steam and domestic, but not for smelting, purposes. They have been successfully worked since 1825.

Chile has five hundred miles of railways, and ranks the fifth of the countries possessing such improvements, if we take into consideration its surface and population.

The area of the State is estimated at 219,962 square miles. The population in 1865 was about 1,814,287. The revenue of the State for 1862 was $6,287,155, and the expenditure $6,228,532. The total public debt, foreign and domestic, is $14,510,625. The exports in 1864 amounted to $27,242,853, and imports to $18,867,365. The standing army numbers 3,000 men. The militia returns muster about 100,000. The navy consists of five armed steamers, mounting thirty guns.

ITS HISTORY.

The Spaniards, after the conquest of Peru in 1830, found the Indian tribes which inhabited Chile paying allegiance to the Peruvian Incas, and determined on its occupation also. The war which ensued resulted, in 1541, by a treaty made up the present site of Biobioline, by which the dominion of Spain was acknowledged. Chile was thenceforth a viceroyalty of Spain until 1820, when the State revolted, and succeeded, after a sixteen years war, in throwing off the yoke of Spain and establishing a republic, which has existed, with several slight and brief interruptions, to the present time. Two revolts against the legal authorities occurred in 1851. The first was begun by Colonel Urriola, and it found its end in the single battle which that officer fought and in which he was killed. The second was led by General Cruz, a defeated candidate for the Presidency; but it failed.

Things to be Remembered all Round.—The Boston Evening Transcript of February 28th has the following:

1. Andrew Johnson was not the first choice of the majority of the people for the Presidency. He is in the Executive chair as the result of the assassination of his chief. Surely this is a reason why he should be modest, and not dogmatical, even if he feels conscientiously bound to differ from the larger portion of those whose votes put him in office.

2. Andrew Johnson has been treated with trust and hope, with forbearance for his personal weakness and gentleness toward his ill considered talk—up to the moment when he indulged in the harangue of the 22d instant. Surely this is a reason why a conciliatory spirit should now first be shown by him and his special friends and advisers, if he sincerely desires to further the work of pacifying and restoring the Union.

3. The Committee of Fifteen—voted for by some of those now the warmest supporters of Andrew Johnson—was raised by the representatives of the people, chosen directly by the people to deal with the present exigency, and on that Committee are some of the truest men, ablest statesmen and coolest patriots of the times. Surely, this is a reason why the stigmatizing of that Committee as a central directory of usurpers is to be condemned as an outrage by the popular sentiment of the land, let it come from whatever lips it may.

4. The main work to be done is plainly to have the control of the late rebel States in loyal hands, and to have the pledge of the nation to succor and protect an oppressed race, solemnly given in the anti-slavery amendment, fully redeemed. Surely this is a reason why primary if not exclusive attention should be devoted to seeing that the republican institutions receive no more injuries from the only section that has ever sought their overthrow.

5. Who shall be the next President? who shall hold offices and pocket emoluments? what party shall get the ascendancy merely to reward partisans? are questions of small moment to the people North and South, as compared with the question how the nation shall be made free and democratic for all time to come. Surely this a reason why the patriotism of the country should follow principles and not men, and insist that the will of the people must be made law, and not the will of those who have no right to do or say anything except as the servants of the people.

6. All history abroad and all history at home proves that the great temptation to centralize power and indulge in despotism peculiarly besets the executive and not the legislative departments of government. The one man assumptions, not the assumptions of representative bodies, are the assumptions to be dreaded. Surely this is a reason why the privileges, functions and independence of Congress should be recognized and sustained, and why care should be taken not to abandon them, whoever may assail them.

These things remembered all round, and remembered especially by the people will insure peace and safety and prosperity to the whole country.

The Oldest Man in the World.—Joseph Crele who was probably the oldest man in the world, died in Caledonia, a little town of Wisconsin, on the 27th of January last, at the age of one hundred and forty one years. Twice three score and ten years may be called a ripe old age. He attained an age greater by twenty years than that enjoyed by the next oldest man of modern times, Jean Claude Jacob, a member of the French National Assembly, who was called the "Dean of the human species," and who died at the age of one hundred and twenty one. This man bore arms at Braddock's defeat, was an old man when Jackson defeated Packenham at New Orleans, venerable when Taylor whipped Santa Anna at Buena Vista, and yet was not too old to rejoice when Lee surrendered to Grant.

Joseph Crele was born of French parents, in what is now Detroit, but which was then only an Indian trading station, in 1725. The record of his baptism in the Catholic church in that city establishes this fact beyond a doubt. He was a resident of Wisconsin for about a century, and was the "oldest citizen" in that State beyond any dispute. Whenever the "oldest citizen" was alluded to every Wisconsinian declared Joseph Crele was the man meant. He was first married in New Orleans in 1755, after having grown to be a bachelor of thirty. A few years after his marriage he settled at Prairie du Chien, while Wisconsin was yet a province of France. Before the Revolutionary war he was employed to carry letters between Prairie du Chien and Green Bay. A few years ago he was called as a witness in the Circuit Court of Wisconsin, in a case involving the title to certain real estate at Prairie du Chien, to give testimony in relation to events that transpired eighty years before and many years before the litigants were dreamt of.

For some years past he had resided at Caledonia with a daughter by his third wife. This child was a little over seventy years of age a couple of years ago, but we do not know whether she survives her father or not. He was sixty nine when she was born. Up to 1864 Mr. Crele was hale and hearty as most men of seventy. He could walk several miles without fatigue, and was frequently in the habit of chopping wood for the family use. He went to all elections, and, from the time he first voted for Washington, he had always voted the straight out Union ticket. He had no bad habits, except that he was an inveterate smoker; but that is not considered among the small vices in the land of Grant and Sherman. In person he was rather above the medium height, spare in flesh, but showing evidences of having been in his prime—a century or so before—a man of sinewy strength. Of late years a haunting sense of loneliness overwhelmed and seemed to sadden him. The only weakness of mind which he ever betrayed was in the last year or two of his existence, when he frequently remarked, with a startling air of sadness, that he feared that perhaps "Death had forgotten him;" but he would always add, with more cheerfulness, that he felt sure "God had not."

Boutwell on Impartial Rights.—George S. Boutwell, of Massachusetts, one of the ablest and truest statesmen in the country, in a speech which he recently delivered before the Equal Suffrage Association of Washington, states as follows one of the questions of the day:

I say this is not a white man's country, it is not a black man's country, it is not a red man's country; it is a country which by Divine Providence has been preserved during centuries for us, with all its fertility and resources, where we might create and build homes and government founded upon Christian civilization. This is a country—for it was so willed—to which should come all people whom God has chosen to place upon the earth. He is, in some form or other, an enemy to the human race who claims this as the white man's country or the black man's country. It is the country of man, set apart and dedicated by the Supreme Ruler of the world. For us who are expecting and about to enter on the enjoyment of restored Union, for the first time to announce that this is a white man's country, is the basest ingratitude. If such were our opinion, we should, two years and more ago, before we invited men of another color to participate with us to jeopard and sacrifice our lives in defense of the country, we should have declared when it was free and restored it should be a white man's country. It does not lie in our mouths after we have accepted the blood of those men, after they have stood in the ranks and on the field of battle in the place of your fathers, husbands, sons and brothers, now that they have fallen and sleep the sleep of death, and their bones bleach upon the plains of the South, to say that this is the white man's country. They have earned in the noblest manner and the largest sacrifice the right to call this their country.

How much superior is this thought and language to that employed by the President in his speech to the delegation of colored men on the 7th or February.

Another Flouring Mill.—Messrs. Gray & Simes called on us yesterday to say, that they with Mr. Anderson have formed a co-partnership for the purpose of building a flouring and custom mill at Gray's Station, sixteen miles below this city. They intend putting in two run of burrs this summer, with good machinery to match, which one of the firm will shortly go to San Francisco to purchase. They have a water power of ten and a half feet fall, dam and race already made, and are intending to commence getting out timbers for the building this week. Now as there are pretty certain to be two mills built in the valley this summer, there is every encouragement offered to farmers to sow all the wheat they possibly can.—Boise Statesman.

U. S. Marshal's Notice.

WHEREAS, an information has been filed in the District Court of the United States for the District of Oregon, on the 4th day of April, A. D. 1866, by J. N. Dolph Esq., District Attorney on behalf of the United States against "Twenty-two Boxes of Cigars," alleging in substance that on or about the 10th day of February, A. D. 1866, in the City of Portland in said District, the Cigars aforesaid were sold and passed out of the hands of the manufacturer without having stamps denoting the tax thereon so affixed that the boxes could not be opened without effacing or destroying the said stamps, against the form of the statute in such cases made and provided, and praying process against said Cigars, that the same may be declared forfeited, and that notice be given to all persons claiming the same to appear and show cause on the return day of said process why such forfeiture should not be decreed.

Now therefore, in pursuance of the warrant, under the seal of said Court to me directed and delivered, I hereby give public notice to all persons claiming the said Twenty-two boxes of Cigars, or in any way interested therein that they be and appear before the said District Court, to be held in the City of Portland, in said District, on Monday, the 7th day of May, A. D. 1866, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, then and there to interpose their claims and make their allegations in that behalf.

Auditor and Clerk of the city of Portland
Portland, April 5, 1866 10t

Ordinance No. 310.

AN ORDINANCE providing for the location of shade and ornamental trees in the streets of the city of Portland.

The City of Portland does ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. All shade and ornamental trees that shall hereafter be planted in the streets of the city of Portland, shall be placed at the distance of from ten to eleven feet from the line of the blocks in the sixty feet streets, and from thirteen to fourteen feet from the line of the blocks in the eighty feet streets, and they shall be trimmed as the Street Commissioner shall from time to time, direct, and if omitted, the Street Commissioner may trim such trees in the month of April, if he shall deem it necessary, to the beauty or convenient use of the street, and the expense shall be paid by the owner of the property to which said trees are adjacent.

Sec 2. Shade or ornamental trees planted or growing within the streets, as permitted by this ordinance, may be protected by such temporary fences or structures as the Street Commissioner shall approve, to be removed under the direction of the Street Commissioner, when so instructed by the Council.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this ordinance shall not apply to Front street.

Sec. 4. Ordinance number thirty five, and all other ordinances or parts thereof, conflicting with the provisions of this ordinance, are hereby repealed.

Passed the Common Council March 21, 1866.

Attest: H. R. MEEKER,
Auditor and Clerk.

Approved March 23, 1866.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,
Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,
GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLOUR ALBUS,

And in every disease in any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

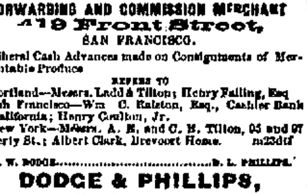
WATER WHEELS.
POWER PLEDGED EQUAL
TO THE
Best Overshot Wheel in Existence.



Prices Greatly Reduced!
Prices Greatly Reduced!

American Double Turbine Water Wheel

IS NOW MANUFACTURED BY THE OREGON IRON Works, in the city of Portland, and orders for the same can be filled immediately. We have a small supply of the different sizes, from 10 inches to 48 inches in diameter. That we may know the proper sized wheel you require, measure your water in the following way: Take the width of the stream, the average depth, and the distance it flows in a minute.

All the wheels now in use give universal satisfaction. Both the construction of the wheel and its performance, commend it to the better judgment of all who are capable of appreciating the highest development of mechanical construction. Therefore it has conquered the most violent opposition.

This wheel is especially adapted to mining purposes. It is light, and can be easily packed into the mountains. Wheels weighing from 100 to 300 pounds will yield from 10 to 40 horse power, under a head of 25 or 30 feet. They are the cheapest wheel to set up known, as they are so arranged as to produce the greatest power possible from the water used.

The prices of these wheels have now been reduced to the ability of all. Come and see them or send for a circular to

ALLEN'S
LUNG BALSAM

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,
Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, and Oppression of the Chest, Lungs, Difficult Breathing, the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC, and DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS and PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION! IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies), or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. It is WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.
